

Project: Dynamic Team Page

usage:

users will click on names in navigation list and see each team member biography at a time.

feature breakdown:

- put some initial content as welcoming message
- click on nav to change profile image, member name and description
- change background color accordingly

code methods:

- a slider area to change profile image using offset value
- store name and description text in array
- add text content into  tag when click on navigation